••• Our Story •••

Our grandparents, Doris and Bert Fink, started the first family Deli in the 1950s where they would cook the meats and make the salads at home, take them to a store front and make sandwiches until they sold out. Our dad, Steve, joined them in the family business where they worked together for nearly 20 years. When our grandparents retired, our dad opened Pasadena Sandwich Company continuing the family Legacy here in Pasadena. We still cook the meats and make the salads fresh daily, just as our dad and grandparents did.

As a third-generation Fink Family Deli, we wish to thank you for your patronage over all the years. It is an honor and privilege to serve our community.
